New Luxury Villas Make Rancho La Puerta Even More Amazing

Sherrie Nachman

Rancho La Puerta has been a beloved destination spa for over 75 years and now three lovely new Villas Cielo (heavenly villas) create a bit more luxury for the Ranch's devoted clientele. These super private sanctuaries are designed with an emphasis on wellness and are a rare opportunity to have one's room personalized. Guests can have one part of their suite set up to become a private office, with a computer, large monitor, and printer or a private gym with a set of weights, yoga mats and exercise wall. All Villas come with iPads and that always elusive Wi-Fi. The décor relies heavily on Mexican inspired art and furniture, the construction materials include Mexican handmade tiles and timber, and everything is super eco-friendly.

The new Villas include a private outdoor oasis RANCHO LA PUERTA

Part of the magic of the Ranch is the spectacular grounds and one of my favorite aspects of the Villas are their large, private outdoor spaces. The lush gardens have many areas for lounging and include a hammock, several chaises, a solar-heated plunge pool, an outdoor shower, and outdoor speakers. Although the dining room is a renowned favorite meeting spot, Villa guests can enjoy some, or all, of their meals in their outdoor gardens. The landscaping includes lavender and rosemary bushes and was designed to attract hummingbirds and doves. At night, guests can use the telescope for some relaxing stargazing.

Villa guests, of course, can join in all of the endless fitness classes that range from yoga to cardio strength and the Ranch's trademark morning hikes. But they also get a few extra perks. Each Cielo Villa includes a private fitness assessment, two private fitness sessions and a custom in-room 90 minute restorative spa treatment, Un Pedacito de Cielo (A Little Piece of Heaven), capped with a refreshment from the property's Tierra Alegre organic juice bar. The head-to-toe treatment combines massage and Reiki to reinvigorate muscles, restore energy and harmonize imbalances and the Villas are the perfect blissful results.

These new Villas provide just one more reason to keep coming back to this incredible retreat.
