RANCHO LA PUERTA BOTTLES ITS MAGIC WITH ITS FIRST ORGANIC SKINCARE LINE

*The Notable Mexico Destination Fitness Resort & Spa
Launches La Puerta Core Essentials*

TECATE, Baja California, Mexico (May 14, 2018) – Rancho La Puerta announced today its first official bounty-to-beauty face, skin, and bodycare line, La Puerta Core Essentials, inspired by the resort's natural settings. Created to honor the fragrant gardens and idyllic setting of the Ranch and its six-acre Tres Estrellas organic farm, the exclusive line is available at Rancho La Puerta Spa and online.

Since its founding in 1940, the original wellness resort has been rooted in growing the mind and honing the body with nature and nutrition at the heart center. As such, La Puerta Core Essentials goes skin deep: The products contain sustainably harvested, wild-crafted and eco-certified ingredients, and blend plant-based medicine with aromatherapy. Elixirs like Calendula & Chamomile Herbal Face Serum, Pomegranate Enzyme Mask and Herb & Flower Exfoliant are among the products for skin, hair, body and sun protection ($20-$75).

"Now guests can embrace the essence of The Ranch experience at home," said Roberto Arjona, CEO and general manager of Rancho La Puerta. "The collection provides simple everyday rituals with pure face, body and sun care products that come from a place our guests love and trust."

Rancho La Puerta's world famous gardens are front and center with invigorating lavender, rosehips, eucalyptus, lemongrass, wild sage and rosemary to name a few. The Sun Restore line shields skin from the elements, especially during outdoor activities like hiking and running for which the resort is known. It features minerals and botanicals that heal and rehydrate after sun exposure. The new Xocolatl line sweetens the collection with Chocolate Body Oil, Body Butter and Sugar Body Scrub. Key ingredients include organic cocoa butter, cocoa essential oil and organic vanilla extract.

A few stand-out face products from the skincare line, totaling 37 products, include an Organic Lavender Hydrating Mist and Calendula Moisture Crème; while the body and hair line includes a Lavender Rosemary Shampoo and Conditioner, Lavender Sage Hand & Body Wash & Lotion as well as a variety of Body Oils with invigorating scent options of lavender, eucalyptus, lemongrass, mountain sage and rosemary. Lastly, featured products from the Sun Restore line include a Recovery Gel with Aloe Vera and Lavender and Rehydrator Lotion with Rosehips and Aloe to soothe the skin after a day of adventure.
